Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Mark Hixon on November 18, 2009.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

In line 4 of claim 1, "the first" has been changed to ---a first---.

In line 7 of claim 2, "adsorbent" has been changed to ---absorbent---.

In line 8 of claim 2, "the desorption" has been changed to ---a desorption---.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The examiner agrees with applicant's characterization of how the instant claims distinguish over the cited prior art, which fails to disclose shifting sour gas portions contained in a natural gas from a first sour gas separation unit to a further sour gas separation unit using the recited steps. The examiner also accepts the claim and specification amendments as not containing new matter. All outstanding objections and rejections have been overcome and are withdrawn.
